

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

States Committee Fixes the Time.

Pursuant to the order of the Democratic State Central Committee, notice is hereby given that the convention of the Democrats of the State of Ohio to nominate candidates for state offices to be voted for at the November election, 1908, will be held at Columbus, Ohio, on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 5 and 6, 1908.

Each county will be entitled to one delegate and one alternate for each 500 votes cast for John M. Pattison for Governor of Ohio, at the November election, 1908, and one alternate delegate and alternate for the remainder of votes exceeding 250. The prescribed number of delegates to this convention shall be elected through primaries, or delegate conventions, the delegates to which shall have been elected at primaries, or mass conventions, held in the county for the holding of which at least ten days' notice shall have been previously given, designating the time and place for the holding of such primaries and conventions, and called by the controlling committee of the party in such counties.

Provided: That in counties where a registration of electors is required a primary election may be held at the discretion of the controlling committee under the statutes governing such primary elections held under the auspices and control of the county board of deputy state supervisors of elections and that in such counties complete lists of delegates to the state convention, headed by the name of a candidate for President of the United States, may be placed on the ballot in such manner as the county committee may determine; provided, however, that the name of no candidate for President shall appear at the head of more than one list of delegates.

No county central or executive committee shall have power to name the delegates to the state convention. The delegates will meet by districts at two o'clock P. M. on Tuesday, May 5th, at such places as may be designated by the Committee on Arrangements, for the purpose of selecting one member of each of the following committees: State Central Committee, Resolutions, Credentials, Rules and Order of Business, Permanent Organization, Vice President and Secretary. All of such committees will meet at places to be designated by the Committee on Arrangements at four o'clock P. M. of the same day. The convention will be called to order in the Franklin County Memorial Hall on East Broad street at seven-thirty o'clock P. M. on Tuesday, May 5th. The temporary officers will be: Chairman, Hon. Edward H. Moore of Mahoning county; Secretary, Hon. Benjamin F. Gayman of Franklin county; Sergeant-at-Arms, Bert S. Bartlow of Butler county. At such convention candidates shall be named for the following offices: Two candidates for the office of Presidential Elector; a Governor; a Lieutenant-Governor; a Secretary of State; an Auditor of State; a Treasurer of State; an Attorney General; two Members of the Board of Public Works; a Dairy and Food Commissioner; a Commissioner of Consumer Schools; two Judges of the Supreme Court, and a Clerk of the Supreme Court. The convention will also select four delegates-at-large and four alternates-at-large to the National Democratic Convention to be held at Denver on July 7th, 1908, and a candidate for United States Senator. The apportionment of delegates and alternates in the convention shall be as follows:

Adams	12	Licking	13
Allen	12	Logan	6
Ashland	7	Lorain	10
Ashtabula	6	Lucas	27
Athens	8	Madison	5
Auglaize	8	Marion	11
Belmont	13	Marion	11
Brown	8	Medina	6
Butler	17	Melgs	5
Carroll	4	Mercer	7
Campaign	5	Miami	10
Clark	11	Monroe	6
Clermont	8	Montgomery	29
Clinton	5	Morgan	4
Columbiana	11	Morrow	5
Coshocton	8	Muskingum	13
Crawford	10	Noble	5
Cuyahoga	27	Ottawa	9
Darke	11	Paulding	6
Defiance	7	Perry	7
Delaware	7	Pickaway	8
Erie	9	Pike	4
Fairfield	10	Portage	8
Fayette	6	Proble	6
Franklin	41	Putnam	9
Fulton	5	Richland	12
Gallia	4	Ross	10
Geauga	3	Sandusky	10
Greene	6	Scioto	11
Guernsey	7	Seneca	11
Hamilton	23	Shelby	7
Hancock	10	Stark	20
Hardin	8	Summit	9
Harrison	5	Trumbull	8
Henry	7	Tuscarawas	13
Highland	8	Union	5
Hocking	6	Van Wert	5
Holmes	8	Vinton	3
Huron	8	Warren	3
Jackson	7	Washington	10
Jefferson	7	Wayne	11
Knox	8	Williams	6
Lake	4	Wood	11
Lawrence	5	Wyandot	9
Total delegates	437
Necessary to a choice	469

CHARLES A. KLOEF, Chairman.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORIAL CONVENTION

The Democratic Senatorial Convention of the Ninth-Fourteenth District will be held at Logan, Ohio, Thursday, May 7th, 1908, at eleven o'clock A. M. for the purpose of nominating two candidates for the office of State Senator.

County	Delegates	Votes
Athens	3	23
Fairfield	3	22
Hocking	2	20
Morgan	1	19
Monroe (part)	1	19
Noble (part)	1	19
Washington	1	19
Total Delegates	19

By order of the Senatorial Committee of the Ninth-Fourteenth District, FRANK PANDHURST, Chairman, VIRGIL C. LOWRY, Secretary.

SOCIETY NEWS OF OTHER TOWNS

By Special Correspondents

Gibsonville

Several from this place attended the exhibition at the Vorhees school Friday night. They all reported the exhibition a decided success.

Mr. Liberman has established a second hand clothing store in the house owned by Wm. Moore, which was recently vacated by Blacksmith Snyder. He has considerable goods displayed, at the present time.

Merton Weltner visited his father Wm. Weltner of Rock Bridge Sunday. Mr. Weltner has been on the sick list, but is reported some better at this writing.

Mrs. J. L. Baker, Mrs. J. Cupp, Goldie Evans, Edith Kline and Verna Brashares called on Cora Kuhn, Friday.

Mr. Jesse McGrady of Lonesome Ridge, was seen on our streets Saturday afternoon.

Messrs. Edwin Keller and Harry Kieffhaber made a flying trip to Logan, Saturday.

Mrs. Lata Notestone and little daughter Maxine of Logan are visiting friends and relatives at this place, at the present time.

Messrs. Ed Ruffner and Male Clover of Lancaster, were business visitors at Gibsonville Friday.

Quite a bevy of young people attended the dance at the Rock House, Saturday night.

Death is abroad in our land. It has again visited our place and taken another angel to dwell with Him on high. Little Forest Noel Kuhn son of Pearl and Cora Kuhn was born Feb. 8, died March 6, 1908 aged 3 weeks and two days. It is very hard to part with loved ones but we should always be resigned to the will of the Lord. He was laid to rest March 7, in the St. Johns Lutheran Cemetery. Rev. Spoehr officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Kuhn have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

MINNEHAHA

Liberty Hill

As we have not heard from this place for some time, we will try and scribble a few.

Among the sick of this vicinity is Mrs. Bessie Snyder.

Wilbert Turner, who has been working at Murray City, has returned home, for a few weeks visit.

Earl Dilts, who has been traveling south, the past winter, has now returned home. He expects to go back to Indiana in a few weeks.

Mrs. Ellen Turner was the guest of Mrs. Bessie Snyder, last Sunday.

Wesley Chapel

Brothers Noethlich and Hartman, of Columbus, are holding revival meeting at So. Bloomingville and, praise God, they are gaining ground slow but sure. Intentions are to turn defeat into victory.

The sawmill owned by L. E. Worthman, situated on the lies place, near Cedar Grove, has been shut down.

Thomas Cain and C. H. Reichley are among the sick at this writing.

Maud Edwards is visiting her parents, of this place at the present.

Jim Davis and wife spent Sunday with Jim Cain and wife.

W. H. Barnhart has purchased a new horse of Adam Schaal.

G. W. Barnhart is visiting near Bloomingville.

Allen Reichley and Miss Minnie Stiverson attended meeting at Bloomingville, Saturday night.

Andy Woodgeard lost a valuable horse, last Sunday night.

Frank Wadsworth, two sons and daughter-in-law visited the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Amerine of this place.

Monday Creek

Lucetta Rebecca Webb, wife and widow of David Hardy, deceased, was born April 4th, 1833 and died March 6th 1908, at the good old age of 74 years, 11 months and 2 days and was laid to rest in the Webb Cemetery March 8th 1908, on account of the drenching rain and the fearful condition of the road, the funeral procession was not so large as it would otherwise have been. She has suffered for many years from asthma and heart trouble. She leaves one son and two grand sons on this side of the great beyond. The son Thomas and wife have lived with the old folks to help them in sickness and old age.

Naney Hiley, an old citizen of Maxville, died at the infirmary at New Lexington, March 7, 1908, and will be buried in the Fairview cemetery.

The card party given by Dr. and Mrs. Shannon on Thursday night was a pleasant affair.

The debate at the Maxville schoolhouse was well attended, and the subject thoroughly discussed, the principal speaker being Mr. Guy Mohler, Oscar Ham-mont, of old Marion, championed the cause of Washington verses Lincoln with the help of E. M. Wetherby, Noah Wolf and the Rev. Hiles championing that of Lincoln and the debate was decided in favor of Lincoln.

Elizabeth Allen, of Williamsport, is visiting her sister, Annie Hardy.

Dry Run

The groundhog's time will soon be over. And we'll expect good weather some more.

Till February second, nineteen and nine, And then we'll try to keep him in line.

At least three of his mice's shadows we'll not see, For in existence they will not be.

For in dragging his polecat tail, They met their fate at the hands of a hunter Ben.

And were carried off by William D. And were dressed at the home of Ira C. Were sent to Columbus by Adams Express And served by Charlie to his friends at a mess.

If you want to know anything else You'll have to study it out yourself, As none of the parties would care to tell, And we think it would be just as well.

Mrs. Kate Anderson has sold her farm to B. F. Julian and expects to go to Amanda soon.

Selling farms and moving seems to the order of the day. The following are some of the changes made: Mart Fasnaght moved from the farm of W. E. McClelland's to Oakland, where he bought property. Mr. Shupe having bought the farm of W. E. McClelland moved on the same. B. F. Julian expects to move on the farm purchased of Mrs. Anderson in the near future. Mr. Muskgrave moved on the old McClelland farm last week. Mr. Muskgrave is from W. Va. We extend to him a cordial welcome.

Clark Bailor butchered a very fine beef last week. Clark says the best is good enough for him.

Geo. Turner, of Atlanta, is visiting his father and friends in this vicinity at present.

Mr. Allen and Burke Chambers were at Lancaster, Saturday.

Durben Finkle visited his little friends, Wade and Russell Fox one night last week.

Mrs. Florence Fox entertained over Sunday, Mrs. Kate Anderson.

Pleasant Hill

Mrs. Pearly Dwyer and children, of Rockbridge, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kline.

Mr. Thomas Kline, of Lancaster, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. Jacob Kline.

Mr. Basil Long, who has escaped from the Asylum, is again in this part of the country. The officers of the Asylum are on the hunt for him.

Mr. Pearl Huffman has been traveling over pikes.

The Kline school will be out in two weeks and all the scholars will be sorry that it is out so soon.

Mr. Fanny Whitcraft called on Mr. Jacob Kline, one day last week.

Mr. Dutch Edwards has given up stumping over the hills and taken to fox hunting.

Alcohol not needed

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows.

We publish our formulas. We insist that our medicines be made from our formulas. We urge you to consult your doctor.

Marion No. 9

Mud, mud. The roads are nothing but mud.

Mrs. McLin is very poorly. Lew Carpenter and wife called on D. Wolf's, Sunday.

Protracted meeting has now commenced at Mt. Tabor.

Orla Wolfe and Jesse Fickel attended church at Mt. Tabor, Saturday evening.

Miss Goldie Scholl called on Miss Nora Scholl, Saturday night.

L. D. Wright attended church at Mt. Tabor, Sunday.

Mrs. Lucy Johnson, of Athens, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Pierce, this week.

Mrs. Chas. Brooks, who had the pneumonia of the lungs, is still improving.

Guy Wright has a serious attack of mumps.

Earl Pierce, who had a very serious attack of la grippe is improving.

Mrs. Jennie Nigh, of Columbus, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wolfe.

Miss Janetta Hartmann spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Logan.

Levi Wolfe, who has been cutting timber, spent Sunday with his parents, D. Wolfe.

Rev. Bagwell, of Bremen, took dinner with Jacob Mowery, Sunday. Earnest Mowery and Walter Rutter, attended church at Mt. Tabor, Saturday night.

Frank Wolfe, wife and mother made a quick trip to Logan, Thursday.

Clarence Pierce is seen quite often wending his way up the hollow.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William McLin, of Logan, the 29 of February, a bouncing boy.

Miss Samantha Pierce, of Columbus, is visiting her parents, this week. BLUE BELL.

Given up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you? Bort & Co.

Pretty Run

Well, we will try to give the readers of the DEMOCRATIC SENTINEL a few items from this place.

We had quite a severe rain and hail storm here Thursday evening, which put the creek out of bank and washed the fields and roads so that it is almost impossible to travel over the roads.

W. W. Thomas purchased 3 fine hogs of Rance Hogle, Friday.

C. H. Stringfellow has been on the sick list for a few days.

E. T. Kalkschach has put in a box on the Citizens Telephone line, which makes it handy for his customers to call him by phone.

Spangler Seitz was at So. Bloomingville and purchased a load of corn a few days ago. COUNTRY KID.

Cider Valley

We are busy in our valley mixing mud.

Charles Zimmerman, moved last week from the J. W. Linton farm to his farm near Mt. Pleasant, Mr. Metz, of near Ewing, moved on the Linton farm.

Mort Hass is staying with James Lindsey, this winter.

Walter Lane is busily engaged cutting saw logs.

C. W. Alkire and Frank Souders made a business trip to Logan, last week.

W. R. Thrush was a Logan shopper, Saturday.

George Anthony made a business trip to New Plymouth, last Friday.

C. W. Alkire purchased a fine cow of Samuel Riggs, last week.

S. J. Stone is making quite an improvement on his farm in the way of building fences.

Lon Nimon and M. Egle passed through our valley, last Friday.

C. W. Riggs is busily engaged in making maple syrup.

Walter Lane and wife visited James Lindsey and family, Sunday.

Ed. Lott, of Clover ridge, went to Orbiston last week and brought home a fine cow.

George Stevens and family were the Sunday guests of Will Huggins and family.

James Flum was seen in our valley, last week.

Will Huggins and wife were Logan shoppers, last Saturday.

Maxville

We are still having a great deal of sickness. Our physician, Dr. Sherman, is kept on the road almost day and night.

Mrs. Leoushia Hardie, relict of the late David Hardie, died at her home one half mile south of Maxville, Friday morning, after an extended illness of almost two years.

Mother Hardie expressed to her friends that she was ready and waiting to go home. She also told her friends that she could see her children at the other shore beckoning her to come. The deceased was a member of the M. E. church from her youth. Her husband and five children preceded her. She leaves one son and two grandchildren to mourn. The funeral services were from the stricken home on Sunday at 9 o'clock A. M. The interment was in the Webb's cemetery beside the husband who preceded this noble wife over four years ago. She was 74 years old at the time of her death.

Miss Nancie Hillery died Sunday morning at New Lexington, and was brought here to her sisters, Mrs. Jacob Hildebaugh. The funeral will be Wednesday 10 A. M. at Fairview Church.

Mrs. Jessie Terrel is seriously ill with no hopes of recovery.

Everybody is either exposed or got the mumps. Maxville is having a swell time.

Miss Rebecca Christen is on the sick list.

Mrs. Harvey Howdshell made a flying trip to Sand Run, Wednesday.

Jennie and Stellie, the little daughters, of Mr. and Mrs. David Spurgeon, are suffering from the mumps.

Miss Lissie Allen, of Williamsport, was called here on account of the death of Mrs. Hardie.

Master Frank Danison has the mumps.

Harvey, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Mohler, is quite sick at this writing.

Mr. J. M. Hillery, of Logan, is here to attend the funeral of his aunt, Miss Nancy Hillery.

Uncle Jess Terrel is quite sick at this writing. He is 96 years old, and his aged wife is seriously ill with no hope of recovery.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Little on Feb. 28th, a son.

Miss Iva Bell is working for Mrs. Sherman at present.

Mrs. Daniel Beougher came home from the Hospital at Columbus, where she successfully underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Rev. J. S. Ricketts had quite an accident Sunday. He was riding horseback on his way to conduct the funeral of Mrs. Hardie. His horses foot caught in some way and Mr. Ricketts jumped and caught his foot in the stirrup and dragged him in the mud, but fortunately, outside of a bad scare, he was not hurt, for which he was thankful.

Strawberry Ridge

Miss Daisy Graham, who has been ill for sometime, is improving very nicely at this writing.

Mrs. Lucius Kepler spent several days with Mr. Lucius Kepler and wife, of near Logan.

Mr. Jacob Mother and wife, of Logan, spent Sunday with Peter Schaffer and family.

Jap O'Hare, of near Union Furnace, Sundayed with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O'Hare, of this place.

John Everhart and Oscar True have moved their sawmill on Mr. Reinhold's farm.

Mr. Casto and wife, of Logan, spent Saturday and Sunday with James Ruble and family.

Mr. Rose Guess, of near Green-dale, spent several days with Tom Nutter and family.

Mr. J. H. Graham and wife had as Sunday guests Mrs. Hattie Griner and daughters, Helen and Hazel, and Mr. Wm. Bartholow and wife, of Logan.

Mr. Frank Coakley, wife and son, and Mr. Solomon Coakley and wife, of near Logan, Sundayed with Andy Marks and family.

Mr. Parley Nutter and wife took dinner with Mr. Tom Nutter and wife Sunday.

Wertz for Lieut. Governor.

Representative Edwin S. Wertz, of Wayne County, the Democratic leader on the floor of the House, announced his candidacy for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Wertz is one of the foremost of the younger element in the General Assembly on both sides, and is the author of much of the beneficial legislation upon the statute books, one of his achievements being the passage of the present railway commission act. Defeated for leadership in the session, he was chosen as the standard bearer last January upon the reassembling of the Legislature.

Two years ago he was a candidate for Congress in the Seventeenth District, but failed to carry the nomination after three days' fight, in which he led most of the time. Mr. Wertz was formerly a newspaper man in this city, but studied law at the Ohio State University during his spare hours and was admitted to the bar.

That Full Dinner Pail.

The "full dinner pail" is not flourishing in the large cities of the country just now. On the contrary the many thousands of unemployed are appealing for work to drive starvation from their homes in more piteous terms than was ever known before. The starving thousands are realizing that the Roosevelt "square deal" is a very hollow promise and Mark Hanna's advice to the sufferers to "stand pat" would be very poor condolence these lamentable times.

Inspector Chambers in Logan.

Attorney P. S. Cleambers, of Pittsburg, representing the government in the naturalization department, was in Logan Monday, and called on Clerk of Court, D. M. Soliday. His business is to instruct the clerks of courts in the matter of preparing naturalization papers, and he also appears for the government in the hearing of such cases before the common pleas court. Mr. Cleambers is a pleasing gentleman, and makes friends where ever he goes.

Repairing the James Block

The old buildings at the rear of the James Building are being torn away and a good brick building erected. The room now occupied by the People's store will be connected up by a rear room to their new room formerly occupied by Mrs. Lulu Wright as a millinery store. The front of the last name business room, improvements are to be made with large show windows. In fact, a whole new front to the room is to be put in.

Magician Dead.

A letter to Mr. F. A. Koppe, announces that Prof. Maro, the world renowned magician, who was booked to give an entertainment in Logan, in January, and who canceled his engagement because of sickness with typhoid fever, died on Thursday of last week. The news comes as a shock to many persons here who have seen him perform and know his great power in slight-of-hand performances.

Simple Remedy for La Grippe

La grippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Bort & Co.

For coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. No opiates. Non-alcoholic. Good for every body. Sold every where.

The genuine FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Prepared only by Foley & Company, Chicago. Bort & Company

ANARCHISTS MUST GO. UNCLE SAM

Is Sweeping the Country of the "Black Hand."

Washington, March 7.—The secretary of commerce and labor to-day issued a sweeping order to all commissioners of immigration and immigrant inspectors in charge, directing them to confer with the police in their respective jurisdictions with a view to securing the "co-operation of the police and detective forces in an effort to rid the country of alien anarchists and criminals falling within the law relating to deportation."

The order of Secretary Straus follows: "To all commissioners of immigration and immigrant inspection in charge: "It is hereby directed that with a view to promptly obtaining definite information with regard to alien anarchists and criminals located in the United States, you shall confer fully with the chief of police, or the chief of the secret service, of the city in which you are located, furnishing such official with detailed information with regard to the meaning of the term 'anarchist' as used in the immigration act of February 20, 1907, and with regard to the inhibition of that statute against aliens of the criminal classes, explaining the powers and limitations imposed by said statute upon the immigration officials with respect to such persons.

"You should call to the attention of the chief of police, or chief of the secret service, the definition of anarchist contained in sections 2 and 38 of the act of February 20, 1907, and the provisions of section 2 placing within the